

Comments Regarding Neil Taylor's Baillie Birdathon Results

Neil, Well done! This is a great contribution to conservation and awareness and a boon for KWFN, Rog.
August 12, 2011

---

Hi Neil!

Congratulations!

I envy the effort, dedication and sense of mission that you gave to your Baillie Birdathon effort this year, in particular. Your results represent a tremendous accomplishment that will benefit Bird Studies Canada and KWFN. The generous manner in which you have shared your energy, knowledge and skills is very much appreciated.

I wish you success in your future endeavours.

Larry
August 11, 2011

---

Congratulations Neil! Great results!

Alison
August 10, 2011

---

Wonderful news, Neil. So glad that you made your goal and more. Your hard work in all of your endeavors is always appreciated. Hope you and yours are having a restful summer with some good birding thrown in. Deb and I are off to Thunder Bay and some camping in a couple of weeks. Of course, birding will be involved a bit.

Cheers,
Randy
August 10, 2011

---

Hello Neil, Well, you certainly can say 'Mission Accomplished'. You must be commended for your efforts and generosity of time and talent. Will you be tempted to go at it again??? What a blessing this is for the birds as well as the gift to KWFN. Thank you again for your commitment to this worth while cause. Sincerely,
Denny & Doris
August 9, 2011

---

Thanks for sending that along Neil. And, it was good to read that you just may consider participating again next year! We will certainly miss you if/when you do decide to "retire"

Thank you again from all of us here at BSC for all that you do!

Kris

August 09, 2011

---